 Someone who is physically injured or threatened with physical injury due to a crime or act of terrorism, and/or children who witnessed or heard an act of domestic violence are considered direct victims under the statute. This does not apply to minor victims of Penal Code section 261.5(d).

 There are no other benefits for victims of unlawful sexual intercourse with a minor. There are no benefits at all for derivative victims from this crime. (Gov. Code,

The direct victim must have been a California resident at the time of the crime, or the crime must have occurred in California. For crimes occurring out of state, the victim must apply to that state first. The date of application or date of crime determines if derivative victims need to be California residents. (Gov. Code, §§ 13955(b), 13959(d); former Gov. Code, § 13955.5; Cal. Code Regs., title 2, §§ 651.1, 653.2)

The direct victim and/or applicant must:

- Cooperate reasonably with law enforcement in the arrest and prosecution of the offender (Gov. Code, § 13956(b).)
- Cooperate with VCP staff and its representatives to verify the application (Gov. Code, § 13954(b).)
- Not have been involved in events leading to the crime or have participated in the crime (Gov. Code, §§ 13956(a), 13956(c).)
- File the application within one year of the crime, the direct victim turning 18 years of age, or when the crime could have been discovered, whichever is later. Good cause may allow for additional filing time (Gov. Code, § 13953.)
- Seek reimbursement from other sources (i.e., health insurance or Medi-Cal) prior to VCP payment (Gov. Code, §13951(e).)

Emergency Awards (Gov. Code, § 13952.5.)An advance may be requested for reimbursement of any eligible expense if the Board determines that it is necessary to avoid or mitigate substantial hardship that may result from delaying compensation until the application is fully verified and processed. The amount of the advance will be based upon the applicant's immediate needs.
